Documents needed for Import Customs Clearance:

For returning Mexican Citizens mandatory documents required for Customs Clearance are:

Passport, RFC and CURP, Stamped Inventory list by Mexican Consulate (only for Mexican Citizens or Residents with Permanent VISA), origin & destination address with Zip Code. The Stamped Inventory is a detailed list that owner of the shipment has to elaborate in Spanish and attend to the nearest Mexican Embassy at origin address and to get each of the Inventory's sheet stamped. This process is called: "Certificado de Menaje de Casa". If the owner of the shipment cannot go to the Mexican Embassy, he may send someone else with a Power of Attorney. The following documents must be taken:

4 sets of the Inventory of his goods, original passports, proof of residency in origin (this has to be for 6 months evidence, which is the established period to authorize import of HHG's shipments) house bills may do or even a lease contract, and finally, he may pay a fee approx. $100 or $150 USD.

Please note that the stamped inventory can only be issued at Origin. There is no way to get it in Mexico.

For foreigner coming to Mexico mandatory documents required for Customs Clearance are: Passport, Temporary Resident VISA, Origin & Destination Address with Zip Code.

For this scenario, we will prepare Letters (duly filled) for Mexican Customs, for customer's review and sign.

Items NOT ACCEPTED for shipping: Aerosol cans • corrosives • explosives • arms • wine / liquors • food of any kind (even canned) • fertilizers • house cleaning products • candles (in air shipments) • lighters / matches • paint / varnish • batteries • live plants • seeds • photographic chemicals • perishable products • fire extinguishers • cylinders • perfume / cologne • toilet articles • jewelry / watches • used tires (as spare parts).

*10% Finance Fee for payment on behalf of booker/customer regarding demurrages of container, storage at Air/Port Red Light, Intensive Inspections at customs, X-Ray whichever the inspection is randomly from authority.

If there are some charges to be collected directly to client, we will add 10% over the charges we will pay on behalf of the client.
We will forward all related receipts.

IF CUSTOMER REFUSE TO PAY, WE WILL INVOICE THE RELATED CHARGES TO THE BOOKER OF THE SERVICE.

Hope we can work together this move.
