Remarks

- All payments are due prior to the delivery. We will send invoice in advance for you to process international transaction. And please note that all international wire transfers are subject to bank transaction fee USD 45, which will be included in our invoice. Please kindly arrange your payment accordingly to avoid any additional charges from occurring. If we fail to receive your payment on time, we will directly collect the charges with the consignee. If the respective party isn't willing to pay for the charges, we will hold the shipment until the problem resolved.
- If Destination THC will be prepaid at the origin, please kindly inform us when you consign the shipment to us.
- Please ensure to thoroughly read through the attached Customs Regulations for Duty Free document.
- It is very important to deliver this information to the client prior to packing.
- Client is required to obtain and fill out the customs declaration form upon arrival at the TPE/KAO airport in Taiwan and submit to the customs.
- If consigning the shipment to Beacon, it is our pleasure to get in contact with the client to inform and further confirm that all required documents are well prepared for import customs clearance in Taiwan. In this case, we could avoid any delay in clearance, additional charges, and disputes from happening with the client.
- Please kindly be noted that this document is not the final quote. We will revise the rate based on the final packed volume/weight shown on the Bill of Lading provided by the respective party.
- Please mark clearly of the box number and shipping mark on each box to differentiate from other shippers' content when shipped by LCL or groupage. Please also indicate the "Shipping Marks" on the Bill of Lading (B/L).
- If shipment is palletized, please indicate boxes' numbers loaded on each pallet.

Shall you have any further question or concern please don't hesitate to contact us. We thank you again for this opportunity and hope to establish further relation with you in the future.
