Customs Information for Germany

The documents below are needed when importing the following items: (without liability)

Removal goods and vehicles:

- Copy of shipper's German residence registration ("Anmeldebescheinigung")
- Copy of shipper's passport
- Packing lists / Proof of Residency in a foreign country (min. 12 months), i.e., statement from shipper's employer or German embassy
- Renting contract of a domicile (if possible)
- Customs registration form 0350
- A letter signed by shipper that the shipment will not include taxable items such as: firearms, alcohol, tobacco, cigarettes, tea, coffee
- Copy of foreign vehicle registration for shipper's automobile/motorcycle (date of issue must be at least 6 months prior to date of shipping and moving)
- Copy of ownership document (date of issue must be at least 6 months prior to date of shipping and moving)

Diplomatic removals:

- Certificate from the embassy or the consulate
- Form 0349

Inheritance:

- Justification of the entitlement as heir or legatee

Spirits, wine and tobacco:

- Subject to payment of duties and taxes

Arms, weapons:

- A valid German gun license
- Hunting permit, German permit to import the weapon(s)

Removal goods are only granted duty free entry if they are imported within one year of the owner establishing his/her residence or secondary residence in Germany. Please send all instructions and information at least 2 weeks prior to the ETA of the vessel or 2 weeks prior to the requested packing date to us in order to avoid additional charges. All charges for domestic moves within Germany or Intra-European moves are subject to V.A.T. unless otherwise specified. The amount of V.A.T. depends on the V.A.T. of the origin EU country and can vary from 15% to 25%. All shipments arriving from other countries than the EU can be cleared and delivered V.A.T.-free within Germany.

Customs prescriptions for each item: (without liability)

Removal goods and vehicles:

- Vehicles have been owned and used for a minimum of 6 months prior to importing.
- After customs clearance, a technical inspection by the vehicle registration office is required. Therefore, the importer will need the original title and the customs form 0060, which we will receive after the customs clearance.
- All items, which will be imported duty-free, need to stay in possession of the importer for at least 12 months after customs clearance. They are not allowed to be sold or given away during this time.

Diplomatic removals:

- Duty-free entry for foreign diplomats, if bilateral agreement with original country

Inheritance:

- For duty-free entry, the inheritor or legatee must have his customary place of residence in the EU and must ask for duty-free entry of the inherited goods within 2 years of their coming into his possession.
- The following items are excluded from duty-free entry: Tobacco and alcohol, commercial vehicles, objects that were used by the deceased person for their profession (except portable tools and instruments) and stocks of raw materials or finished or half-finished products.

Restricted/forbidden items:

The importation of the listed articles is only granted under special conditions or is forbidden:

- Explosives, radioactive materials, absinthe, methyl alcohol, pure alcohol, narcotics, wine, grape juice and other various foodstuffs and consumer goods in large quantity, which are usually held as provisions.
