EXPORT OF PAINTINGS, MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS, ART EFFECTS AND ANTIQUES

Export of paintings, musical instruments, art effects, antique furniture require export permits by National Bureau for Protection of Monuments and Ministry of Culture.

Export of books requires export permits by National Library and Ministry of Culture.

NOTES

When exporting artwork, antiques, instruments, etc, it is advised to have the receipts from the purchase of the goods. If the goods were brought into the country then the shipper must have the original import paperwork for them.

EXPORT OF SPECIAL ITEMS (E.G. RIFLES, STUFFED ANIMALS, ETC.)

Rifles

- Several permits are required depending on the type of the rifle which wants to be exported

Stuffed animals

- CITES certificate
- Animal health certificate

NOTES

Before exporting any special item from Serbia please contact our office in order to check the appropriate permit requirements, also make sure that these items can be imported to the destination country.

EXPORT OF WINE, SPIRITS AND TOBACCO

There is no restriction as to the amount of wine, spirits and tobacco that can be exported for personal consumption to a non-EU country. Special permits from several ministries are required. Before exporting alcohol from Serbia please contact our office in order to check the appropriate permit requirements, also make sure that these items can be imported to the destination country.

If the destination is an EU country alcohol and tobacco can be transported by the client only.

Please note that in both cases import rules of the destination country must be followed to avoid problems with importing the alcohol and tobacco.
