Training (subclass 407) visa conditions

Maintain health insurance (visa condition 8501)

This condition means that you must maintain adequate health insurance while you are in Australia. Reciprocal health arrangements may not be adequate.

More information: immi.homeaffairs.gov.au/help-support/meeting-our-requirements/health/adequate-health-insurance

Work limitation (visa condition 8104)

This condition means if you are a member of the family unit of the person who has been granted a student visa, you must not engage in work until that person has commenced a course of study.

You are also not permitted to work for more than 40 hours a fortnight while you are in Australia. If the course of study is for a masters or doctoral degree then you are permitted to work more than 40 hours per fortnight but only in these circumstances.

Activity limitation (visa condition 8303)

This condition means that you must not become involved in activities disruptive to, or violence threatening harm to the Australian community or a group within the community.

Australian working conditions

Workplace rights

Pay rates and workplace conditions are set by Australian law. All people working in Australia, including those from overseas, have rights and protections at work. These cannot be taken away by contracts or agreements.

If you have questions about your pay and conditions while in Australia, you can contact the Fair Work Ombudsman for free information, resources and advice.

Visit www.fairwork.gov.au for information for visa holders and international students. This includes information in 41 languages.

You can also contact the Fair Work Ombudsman by phone within Australia on 13 13 94 (Translating and Interpreting Service 13 14 50).
